

PRIVATE EQUITY (PE) GROUPS: PORTFOLIO TRANSPORTATION MANAGEMENT

Renegotiating your agreement: What's your poker strategy?

So you're a PE group. You recognize opportunities. You take risks. You build value. You've studied financial pie charts and have seen a big piece labeled, "Transportation & Logistics Expenditures." At iDrive Logistics, we chop away at that piece and bring cost savings to your entire portfolio of companies.

iDrive leads the way in PE Portfolio Transportation Management iDrive understands the unique transportation and logistics needs of PEs and their portfolio companies. Specifically for the PE, the consistent buying and selling of companies creates a management and implementation headache among an ever-changing portfolio. We ease your burden by managing all aspects of your transportation needs seamlessly, while allowing you to maximize your revenue. Whether it's providing audit services, optimizing carrier agreements or discovering new efficiencies, iDrive is a one-stop solution for PE firms looking for a new revenue stream or looking to cut costs for individual portfolio companies.

iDrive's buying power, expertise and expansive carrier network formulates the perfect, customized solution and provides simplified management throughout your portfolio.

Where one size does not fit all, iDrive discovers the perfect solution.

The iDrive Difference

Unmatched Analytical Team

We are the only company in the industry who has a member of our team who was responsible for cost models, pricing models, pricing policies and agreement language for the largest carrier in the world.

Cost Model Philosophy

Because of our unique approach, our analysis is NOT based on benchmarking but on cost models. We understand how and why the carriers set up their agreements and what concessions are available.

Expansive Carrier Network

We work with hundreds of carriers to piece together the perfect solution for your portfolio.

Quarterly Reviews

We provide you with professional quarterly reviews of your carrier agreements. This ensures that you are always receiving the best pricing and service available.
